

Edward Gorey

Title

The infant's trajectory passed him over the rectory

Medium

Pen and ink on paper

Date

1973

Dimensions

4 1/2 x 3 1/2 in. (11.4 x 8.9 cm)

Accession number

2009.9.3

Copyright

© The Edward Gorey Charitable Trust

Credit Line

Purchased with the Andrew Sordoni Fund for American Illustration, 2009

Web Description

Edward Gorey created humorous, curious stories in a series of pictures akin to cartoon strips but in picture-book form. These images provide story-like situations about the mundane and familiar, the obtuse and ambiguous, the coincidental and the fateful with a deliberately detached air. Except for a few books he created without text, most of the artist's work revels in the combination of visual and word imagery and alliteration.